

Intake and Investigation Flow Chart

Family based care options including the use of the child or youth's extended family system are considered least disruptive and optimal in achieving child safety and family wellness. Bringing a child to a Ministry licensed place of safety is the last resort.